Click the three dots on the right side of the application to access available actions. For example, "Detailed Review" allows you to view the full content of your application, while "Make a Copy" creates a duplicate of your previous application, including all its content.

Different Statuses on the Application

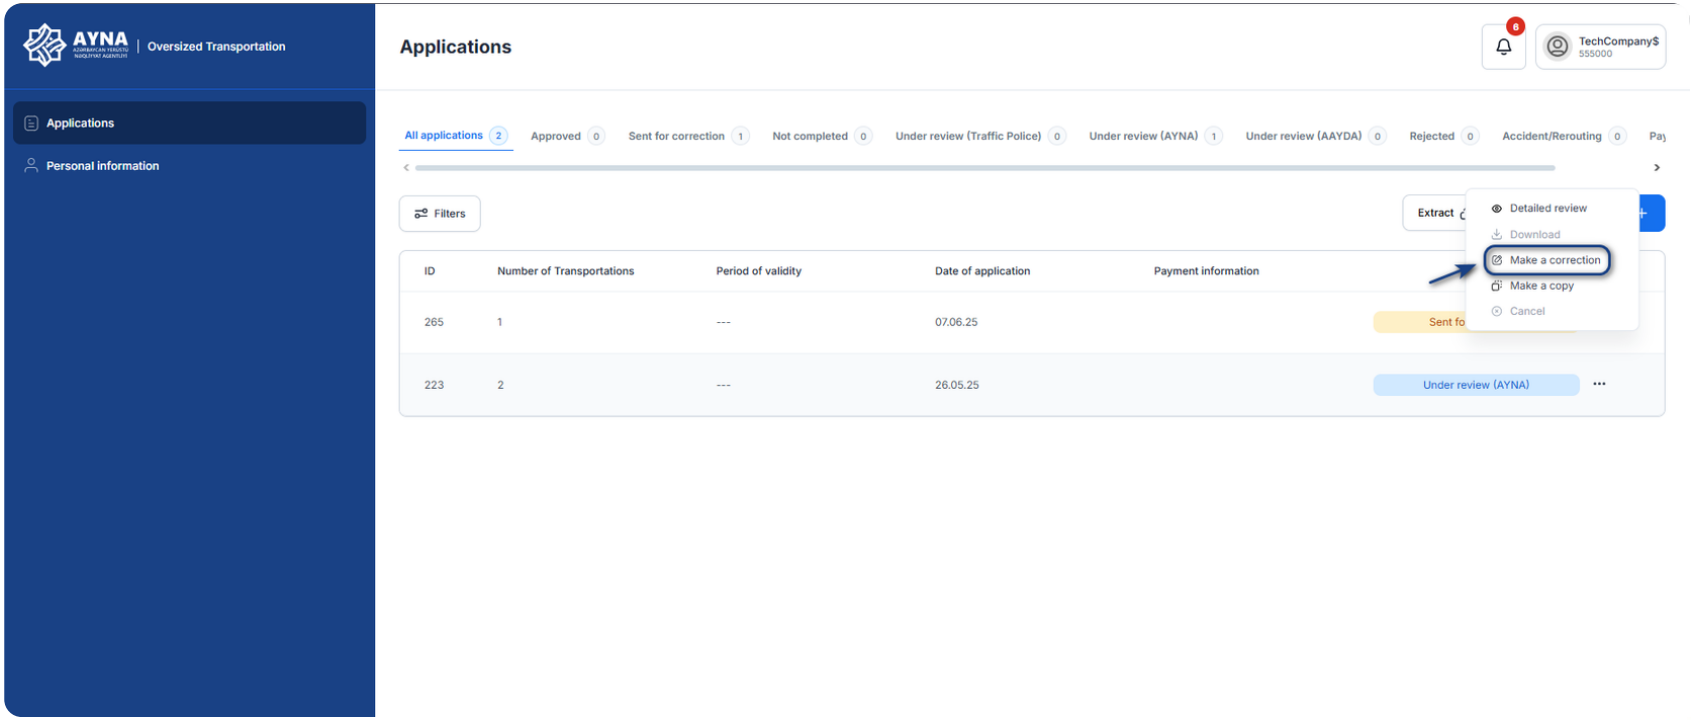

In some cases, institutions may return the application to you for correction if any required information is missing or incorrect. This will appear as the “Sent for Correction” status.

Different Statuses on the Application

To edit a returned application, click the three dots next to it and select the "Make a Correction" option. After making the necessary changes, you must re-sign the application form so it can be sent back to the relevant institutions. To view the reason for the correction request, click "Detailed Review" to see the comment left by the institution.

Different Statuses on the Application

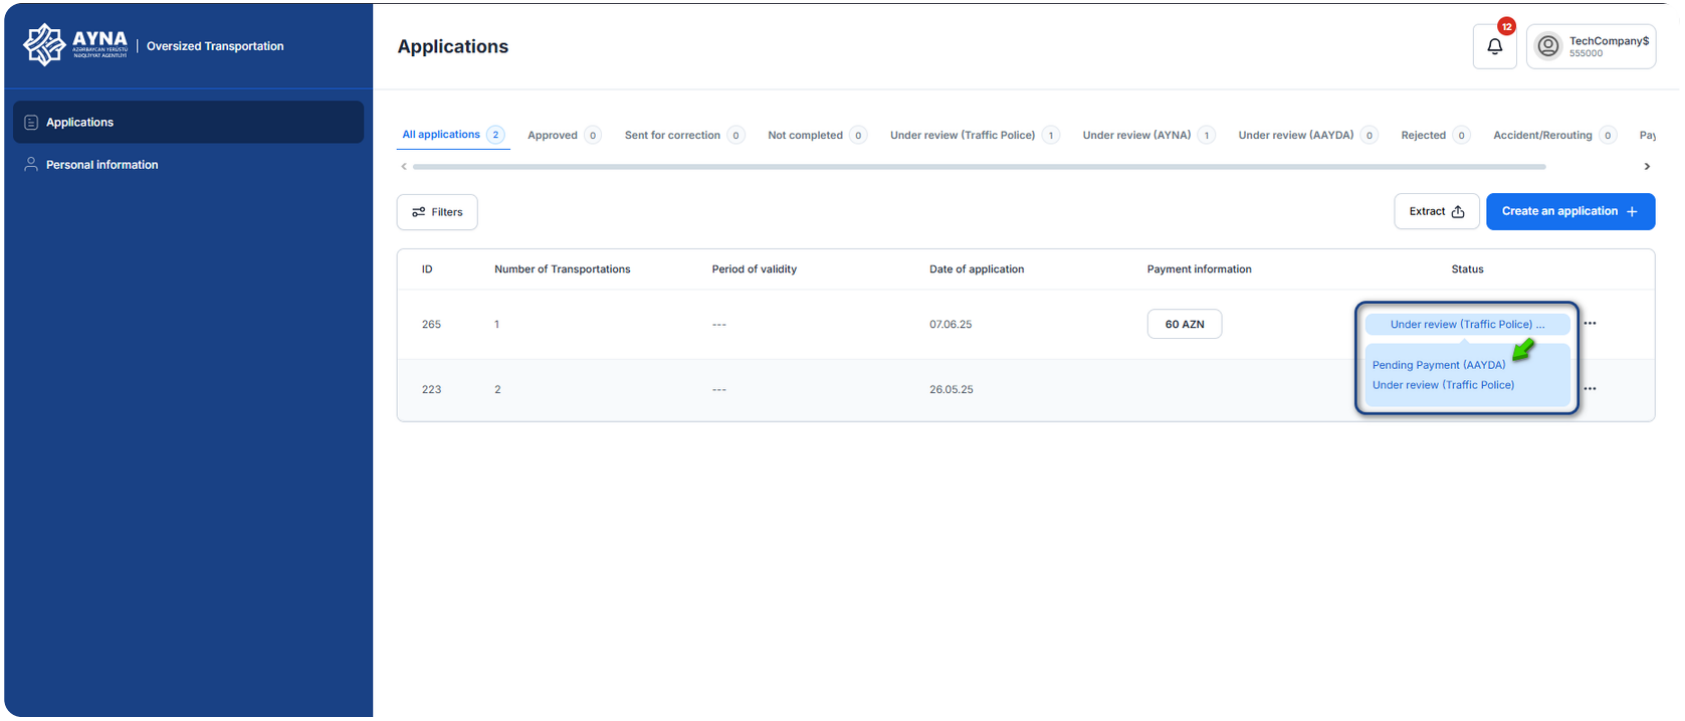

This status indicates that your application is currently under review by AAYDA (the State Agency of Azerbaijan Automobile Roads) and the Traffic Police.
